DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

2. Claims 23, 25, 38 and 39 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being clearly anticipated by Sederberg et al. (5,992,023), hereinafter, Sederberg. See Fig. 9.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

3. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

4. Claims 1-11, 14-20 and 50-55 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Morikawa (5,339,525) in view of Sederberg.

Regarding claims 1-3, 50 and 51, Morikawa teaches a wearing plate/piercing tip

7. See Figs. 1-5 and the below sketch.

Morikawa fails to teach the geometric configuration of the wear plate/pierce tip being the same in a first position and a second position, wherein the second position is a position in which the wear plate/tip insert is rotated 180 degrees. Sederberg teaches the geometric configuration of the wear plate/pierce tip 116 being the same in the first position and the second position. See Fig. 13 and 14. Therefore, it would have been obvious to one skilled in the art to provide the wear plate/pierce tip of Morikawa the geometric configuration as taught in Sederberg so that both sides of the wear plate/pierce tip can be used to reduce the spare part of the wear plate/pierce tip.

Regarding claims 5-9, 14-18 and 52-55, Morikawa teaches a shears comprising a fixed jaw having a first cutting edge 10, a movable jaw having a second cutting edge 8, and an indexable wear plate/pierce tip 7. See Figs. 1-5.

Morikawa fails to teach the geometric configuration of the wear plate/pierce tip being the same in a first position and a second position, wherein the second position is a position in which the wear plate/tip insert is rotated 180 degrees. Sederberg teaches the geometric configuration of the wear plate/pierce tip 116 being the same in the first position and the second position. See Fig. 13 and 14. Therefore, it would have been obvious to one skilled in the art to provide the wear plate/pierce tip of Morikawa the geometric configuration as taught in Sederberg so that both sides of the wear plate/pierce tip can be used to reduce the spare part of the wear plate/pierce tip.

Regarding claims 4, 10, 19, 40 and 41, Morikawa teaches the invention substantially as claimed except for providing a boss on the wear plate/pierce tip and a depression on the movable jaw for receiving the boss. Sederberg teaches providing a boss 150 on the wear plate/pierce tip and a depression 148 on the movable jaw for receiving the boss. Therefore, it would have been obvious to one skilled in the art to provide providing a boss on the wear plate/pierce tip and a depression on the movable jaw for receiving the boss in the shears assembly of Morikawa for quicker alignment the wear plate/pierce tip to the movable jaw.

Regarding claims 11 and 20, the first cutting edge 10 and the second cutting edge 8 are best seen in Figs. 1-5.

Allowable Subject Matter

5. Claims 42-49 are allowed.
6. Claims 12, 13, 21 and 22 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Response to Arguments

7. Applicant's arguments filed on 03/15/2006 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive.

Applicant misinterprets the Examiner's interpretation of Sederberg. Sederberg clearly teaches the cutting tips protruding laterally with respect to a central region of the cutting blade as shown below.
